

Pictograms were created to help people – especially those who don't read or write English — to easily identify Link light rail stations.

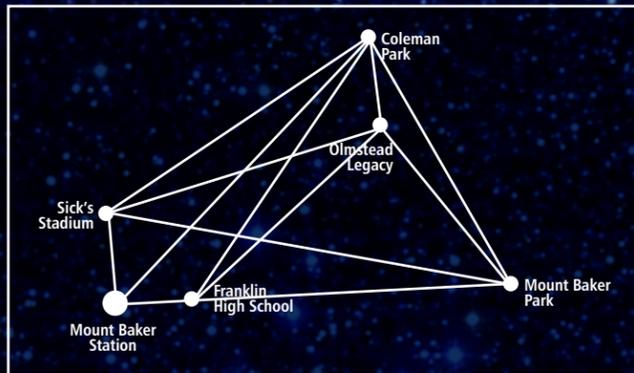

The idea was to create a symbol for each community where a light rail station is located. The symbol is a unique constellation. Stars in the constellation reflect points of interest around the station and the community. The pictograms will be used on station signs, maps and handouts.

Steps in creating each constellation:

Selecting points of interest

THE STORY OF THE PICTOGRAMS
AT LINK LIGHT RAIL STATIONS

WESTLAKE

Tiara

A tiara is a playful decorative item anyone at any age can wear and a fitting symbol for a neighborhood that sparkles.

CONSTELLATION POINTS: Westlake Station, Westlake Park, Pike Place Market, Victor Steinbrueck Park, Paramount Theater, Washington State Convention Center.

UNIVERSITY STREET

Spectacles

A hub for the arts — music, theater, literature, visual art — this neighborhood is nothing if not “Spectacular.”

CONSTELLATION POINTS: University Street Station, Central Library, Seattle Art Museum, Benaroya Hall, Fifth Avenue Theater, University of Washington (original location).

PIONEER SQUARE

Frigate

Seattle’s original settlement survived on lumber sales to ship’s captains. The steamship “Portland” docked here with a ton of Klondike gold triggering the gold rush.

INTERNATIONAL DISTRICT

Dragon

Dragons symbolize wisdom, power and mystery, and remain an active symbol in use here.

CONSTELLATION POINTS: International District Station, Union Station, King Street Station, Kobe Terrace, George Tsutakawa Sculpture, Wing Luke Asian Museum, Hing Hay Park.

STADIUM

Torch

What is competition about if not victory? With the universal embrace of the Olympic games, the victory torch is a perfectly suited image for this neighborhood.

CONSTELLATION POINTS: Stadium Station, Event Center, Safeco Field, Qwest Field.

SODO

Anvil

Since filling the tide flats and laying the railway tracks that secured Seattle’s growth, the area known as SODO has been dedicated to workers, warehouses and industrial fabrication.

CONSTELLATION POINTS: SODO Station, SODO Center, Link Operations & Maintenance Facility, Old Brewery, Beacon Hill Tunnel.

BEACON HILL

Kite

A kite poetically evokes a sense of light and air, as well as community spaces and summer picnics, items that play prominent roles in Beacon Hill’s neighborhood plan and history.

CONSTELLATION POINTS: Beacon Hill Station, El Centro de la Raza, Beacon Hill Library, Beacon Hill Reservoir, 12th Avenue Viewpoint.

MOUNT BAKER

Mountain

With views of both Baker and Rainier, a mountain is a natural symbol here.

CONSTELLATION POINTS: Mount Baker Station, Franklin High School, Sick’s Stadium Site, Coleman Park, Olmstead Boulevards, Mount Baker Park.

COLUMBIA CITY

Dove

A dove is suggested by virtue of point alignment and evokes the actual constellation “Columba,” the dove.

Constellations throughout history

Nearly all cultures have a rich history of gazing at the stars and imagining constellations that represent figures in their mythic traditions. Stellar Connections uses that history and tradition to create signs that identify light rail stations. The Stellar Connections project is flexible and could be easily expanded throughout the community.
